

Knowledge check

4 minutes

Choose the best response for each question. Then select Check your answers.

Check your knowledge

1. Which of the following statements best describe a pull request? *

☐

Pull requests are commonly used by teams and organizations collaborating, where everyone shares a single repository, and topic branches are used to develop features and isolate changes.

✓ Correct. Pull requests are commonly used by teams and organizations collaborating, where everyone shares a single repository, and topic branches are used to develop features and isolate changes.

☐

Pull requests are used to publish new changes from feature branches into production branches and update the environments with the latest code version.

☐

Pull request creates reports from the latest branch updates and generates remediation summary for resolving issues during development.

2. Which of the following choices isn't a benefit of using pull requests? *

☐

Protect branches with policies.

☐

Give feedback.

☐

Create reports about code security and quality.

✓ Correct. The common benefits of collaborating with pull requests are: Get your code reviewed, Give great feedback, and Protect branches with policies.

3. Which of the following choices is the most effective way to avoid direct updates from feature branches into main? *

☐

Branch Policies.

✓ Correct. Policies are a great way to enforce your team's code quality and change-management standards.

☐

Branch Security.

☐

Branch Lock.

Next unit: Summary

Continue >